I consider that New Buckenham is incorrectly allocated as a village with no boundary. the village is a compact village with many thriving businesses, two public houses, a garage, and shop. There is a recognised demand for new housing (both affordable and later life) that will potentially be prevented by its incorrect designation. There are smaller and more widely dispersed villages in Breckland that have been allocated with a boundary.

It is my opinion that the designation should be changed to give a settlement with a boundary.
