Part One - Introduction

1. Scope and Purpose

The authority has adopted the Model Publication Scheme issued by the Information Commissioner's Office.

This publication scheme commits the authority to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below.

Information held by the authority that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

The scheme commits the authority:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To specify the information which is held by the authority and falls within the classes below.
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information that is made proactively available.
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.
- To publish any dataset held by the authority that has been requested, and any updated versions it holds, unless the authority is satisfied that it is not appropriate to do so; to publish the dataset, where reasonably practicable, in an electronic form that is capable of re-use under the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, if they apply, and otherwise under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act section 19. The term 'dataset' is defined in section 11(5) of the Freedom of Information Act. The term 'relevant copyright work' is defined in section 19(8) of that Act.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

2. Access to the Scheme

The authority will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained. Much of the information will be provided on our website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on our website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, the authority will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.

In exceptional circumstances, some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details are provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where the authority is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

3. Charges

The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the authority for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.

Material which is published and accessed on the website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- Photocopying
- Postage and packaging
- The costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information.

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

Charges may also be made for making datasets (or part of datasets) that are relevant copyright works available for re-use. These charges will be in accordance with the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, where they apply, or with regulations made under section 11B of the Freedom of Information Act, or with other statutory powers of the authority.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

4. Review of the Scheme

This Scheme will be amended periodically as necessary and a full review will be carried out every 3 years.

Part Two – Classes of Information

1. Transparency Code Data and Information

1.1 Expenditure exceeding £500

We as a Council believe that it is important to be open and transparent with our local residents in terms of how we spend our money. The information provided will include:

Breckland Council works in partnership with a range of statutory, voluntary, community and business organisations to improve the quality of life for people living, working and visiting the area.

The Council is represented on principal external bodies; a list of these can be found on our website at <https://democracy.breckland.gov.uk/mgListOutsideBodies.aspx>

2.7 Other office holders

The Returning Officer is the person who has the overall responsibility for the conduct of elections. The Returning Officer is an officer of the Council who is appointed under the Representation of the People Act 1983, although appointed by the Council the role of the Returning Officer is one of a personal nature and distinct and separate from their duties as an employee of the Council.

For further information, please contact elections@breckland.gov.uk or telephone 01362 656870

Councils have a duty to appoint a Monitoring Officer to ensure the lawfulness and fairness of Council decision-making. The Monitoring Officer serves as the guardian of the Council's Constitution and the decision-making process and providing guidance to councillors and officers on the Council's constitution and its powers. The Monitoring Officer also works closely with the Council's Governance and Audit Committee to assist it in its role of promoting and maintaining high standards of conduct and probity within the Council.

For further information, please contact the Monitoring Officer on standards@breckland.gov.co.uk.

3. What we spend and how we spend it

3.1 Financial statements, budgets and variance reports

The Council spends public money and it is important that the public can see how we have spent that money. The website contains a large amount of information on financial matters, including financial plans, budget summaries and the Capital Strategy. Detailed financial information is available on the website for at least the last three years

<http://breckland.gov.uk/article/3461/Strategies-Plans-and-Policies->

On our Statement of Accounts webpage, you will also find further information, including our Building Regulations Account

<https://www.breckland.gov.uk/article/3458/Statement-of-Accounts>

'Senior Officers' are the Executive Management Team and are defined as being a statutory chief officer as defined in the LGHA 1989 section 2(6); a non-statutory chief officer as defined in the LGHA 1989 section 2(7); or someone with responsibility for the management of the authority, being able to direct or control its major activities, whether solely or collectively.

The Council's Pay Policy Statement can be found at: https://www.breckland.gov.uk/article/4247/Localism-Act-Pay-Policy-

4 What our priorities are and how we are doing

4.1 Corporate Plan

The Corporate Plan sets out what this Council wants to achieve, and in particular, how we will work with partners to achieve our vision

The Corporate Plan is published on our website at <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/article/3461/Strategies-Plans-and-Policies->

4.2 Service strategies and plans

Each service has responsibility for their own policies, strategies and service plans and many of them can be found on the website at

<http://breckland.gov.uk/article/3461/Strategies-Plans-and-Policies->

4.3 Internal and external organisation performance reviews

Performance reviews are discussed at Governance & Audit Committee, the minutes can be found on our website at

<http://democracy.breckland.gov.uk/ieListMeetings.aspx?CId=468&Year=0>

4.4 Managing performance

The Council's Corporate Plan sets out how the Council will manage performance. This includes agreeing an Annual Action Plan and assessing quarterly performance reports of the progress in delivering the plan.

More information about our performance against all the targets are set out in the Corporate Plan. <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/article/3461/Strategies-Plans-and-Policies->

4.5 National and local performance indicators

More information about our performance can be found at

<https://democracy.breckland.gov.uk/ieListMeetings.aspx?Committeed=143>

4.6 Strategies developed in partnership

Partnership working is high on the Central Government agenda and can provide opportunities for providing improved delivery of major projects or services. This requires the creation of a sustainable relationship with suppliers in the public, private, social enterprise or voluntary sectors to deliver services carry out major projects or acquire supplies and equipment.

The Council also seeks to enter into collaborative arrangements with other Councils and public bodies to combine buying power, to procure or commission goods, works or services jointly or to create shared services for the mutual benefit of all.

4.7 Business Support

The Council contributes to and supports the development of the local economy directly through the Regeneration Team and partnership working with a range of services such as Planning, Land & Property and Environmental Services. The Regeneration team are dedicated to provide the highest level of support for your business, providing both strategic and project-based work in order to deliver services for individuals, communities and businesses across the district.' 4.9 Impact assessments

An equality impact assessment is a tool for identifying the potential impact of a council's policies, services and functions on its residents and staff. It can help staff provide and deliver excellent services to residents by making sure that these reflect the needs of the community. The Council subjects all its policies and strategies to an impact assessment.

4.10 Customer care and service standards

The Council is committed to providing quality services. This commitment is outlined within our Customer Charter, which can be found on our website at <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/customer-charter>

4.11 Annual Monitoring Report (Local Development Scheme)

Monitoring is an important part of the planning process and plays a critical part in identifying changing situations that may trigger a review of policies. We prepare Annual Monitoring Reports in order to assess the extent to which policy objectives are being achieved <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/annualmonitoringreport>

4.12 Statistical information produced

Quarterly performance reports are presented at Overview and Scrutiny Commission. The minutes and agendas of the OSC can be found on our website at <http://democracy.breckland.gov.uk/ieListMeetings.aspx?CId=143&Year=0>

We also produce profiles for every ward within Breckland that compiles data from sources such as the Office of National Statistics. These ward profiles can be found on our website at: <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/article/3462/Ward-Information>

4.13 Breckland District Local Plan

The Council's Adopted Local Plan sets the strategic context for development in the District, governing the decisions made on planning applications, and what types of development are suitable for each area. It is a key document that guides development in the District over the next 20 years.

The Localism Act, introduced in 2011, also comes with a requirement that Local Authorities produce and justify their own housing targets rather than having to rely on the targets set out by the abolished Regional Spatial Strategy (East of England Plan).

The Breckland Local Plan was adopted on the 28th November 2019. Further information can be found at <https://www.breckland.gov.uk/adopted-local-plan>
