

Gooderstone Parish Council Code of Conduct

Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Gooderstone Parish Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members and co-opted members whenever they conduct the business of the Council including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council.

This Code of Conduct is based on the principles of selflessness, honesty, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, and leadership.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Code, a 'co-opted member' is a person who is not a member of the Council but who is either a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, or a member of, and represents the Council on any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Council, and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee.

For the purposes of this Code, a 'meeting' is a meeting of the Council, any of its committees, sub-committees, joint committees or joint sub-committees.

For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes a co-opted member of the Council.

Adopted by Council May 2014, reviewed and amended October 2015 - next review October 2016

Seven General Principles of Public Life

This Code of Conduct is based on the principles of:

1. Selflessness – members should serve only the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.
2. Honesty – members have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
3. Integrity – members should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might influence them in the performance of their official duties, and should on all occasions avoid the appearance of such behaviour.
4. Objectivity – members should make decisions on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.
5. Accountability – members should be accountable to the public for their actions and the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities, and should co-operate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to their particular office.
6. Openness – members should be as open as possible about their actions and those of their authority, and should be prepared to give reasons for their actions.
7. Leadership – members should promote and support these principles by leadership, and by example, and should act in a way that secures or preserves public confidence.

Member obligations

When a member of the Council acts, claims to act or gives the impression of acting as a representative of the Council, he/she has the following obligations.

- 8 He/she shall behave in such a way that a reasonable person would regard as respectful, courteous and with consideration.
- 9 He/she shall not act in a way which a reasonable person, including other Councillors, Council officers or members of the public, would regard as bullying or intimidatory.
- 10 He/she shall not seek to improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person who works for, or on behalf of the authority.
- 11 He/she shall use the resources of the Council in accordance with its requirements.

- 12 He/she shall not disclose information which is confidential or where disclosure is prohibited by law.
- 13 He/she shall take account and regard advice given from the Clerk/Responsible finance officer/Monitoring officer where they give it under their statutory duties by respecting the impartiality and integrity of the authority's statutory officers and its employees.
- 14 He/she should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, by treating any person, with respect regardless of their race, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation or disability.

Registration of interests

- 15 Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, or the member's election or the co-opted member's appointment (where that is later), he/she shall register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A and B.
- 16 Upon the re-election of a member or the re-appointment of a co-opted member, he/she shall within 28 days re-register with the Monitoring Officer any interests in Appendices A and B.
- 17 A member shall register with the Monitoring Officer any change to interests or new interests in Appendices A and B within 28 days of becoming aware of it.
- 18 A member need only declare the existence but not the details of any interest which the Monitoring Officer agrees is a 'sensitive interest'. A sensitive interest is one which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead the member or a person connected with the member to be subject to violence or intimidation.

Declaration of interests at meetings

19. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. He/she only has to declare what his/her interest is if it is not already entered in the member's register of interests or if he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it.
20. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A which is a sensitive interest, the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. If it is a sensitive interest which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the member shall disclose that he/she has an interest but not the nature of it.

21. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix B, the member shall not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.
22. A member only has to declare his/her interest in Appendix B if it is not already entered in his/her register of interests or he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it or if he/she speaks on the matter. If he/she holds an interest in Appendix B which is a sensitive interest not already disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, he/she shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.
23. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than an interest in Appendix A), the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

Dispensations

24. On a written request made to the Council's proper officer, the Council may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion and vote on a matter at a meeting even if he/she has an interest in Appendices A and B if the Council believes that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.
